Date + Speaker: Sept. 13 ,2026 Pastor Mark Scarr

Starter Questions:

1. If you could instantly overcome one challenge in your life, what would it be and why?

2. Who is someone you admire for their courage, and what makes them stand out to you?

3. What is one accomplishment you're proud of that seemed difficult or impossible at first?

4. What's the biggest "mountain" or "giant" you've already overcome that taught you an important lesson?

Discussion Questions:

1. Which of the four giant killers (Abishai, Sibbecai, Elhanan, or Jonathan) caught your attention the most, and why?

2. What detail from the passage or sermon stood out to you the most?

3. Why do you think the Bible records the names of these giant killers instead of simply saying the giants were defeated?

4. Which characteristic of the giants do you think is most relevant today: being big, loud, powerful, or frightening? Why?

5. What do you think David felt when his men told him he should no longer go into battle with them (2 Samuel 21:17)?
6. What lesson about teamwork, support, or leadership do you see in this passage?

7. If you were going to give this sermon a different title, what would you call it?

Diving Deeper:

1. David became weary in battle, and Abishai stepped in to help him (2 Samuel 21:15-17). What does this teach us about supporting one another in the body of Christ?

2. David's men told him, "You shall no longer go out with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel" (2 Samuel 21:17). What can we learn about leadership, legacy, and raising up the next generation?

3. Several different men defeated giants after David's victory over Goliath. Why do you think God chose to raise up multiple giant killers instead of relying on one person?

4. The sermon emphasized that the real battle was not man versus giant, but God in the man versus the giant. How does this connect with the promise found in 1 John 4:4?

5. David declared, "The battle is the Lord's" (1 Samuel 17:47). How does this truth change the way we approach challenges that seem impossible to overcome?

6. Which truth, verse, or lesson from today's study will help you face the "giants" in your life this week, and how can you apply it in a practical way?
