Series Title: 2 TIMOTHY SERMON SERIES – PART 3 OF 4
Key Scripture: 2 Timothy 3, NIV
Sermon: www.woodvale.ca/pastservices/2-timothy-series
Date + Speaker: Pastor Mark Scarr; February 18th, 2024

Introduction:

There are going to be difficult times ahead in the last days, so how can we prepare for it? Let's explore 2 Timothy 3 to find out how.

Discussion:

1. In 2 Timothy 3:1 we read that there will be terrible times in the last days. How does this understanding of the future impact your present decisions and actions?

2. 2 Timothy 3:5 tells us to avoid certain people. How can we do this without becoming too judgmental or shutting ourselves off from everyone?

3. What does Christian persecution look like? Is there a difference between being persecuted as a Christian in North America vs. being persecuted as a Christian in other parts of the world?

4. In 2 Timothy 3:10-13 we read that Paul had his own share of experiences with persecution. How can his example encourage you to persevere through any difficulties you might experience?

5. What do we learn about the Scripture in 2 Timothy 3:16-17? How can we allow God's Word to equip us for every good work?

Reflection:

Let's dedicate some time this week to deepen our relationship with God through His Word. Set aside a few moments to meditate on any Scripture that He has placed on your heart.
