Date + Speaker: March 2, 2025 | Pastor Mark Scarr

Starter Questions:

1. Did you experience or perform any acts of kindness this week? How did it impact you or others?
2. How do you prioritize and maintain healthy relationships with those around you, including family, friends, and colleagues?

Discussion Questions:

1. Legacy Building: Pastor Mark said everyone is a "legacy builder". When you reflect on your life, what legacy do you hope to leave behind?
2. Influence and Faith: How do you think your actions and faith positively influence those around you?
3. Sharing Faith: In what ways do you feel called to share your faith and experiences with others, particularly younger generations?
4. Trust in God: How does your trust in God manifest in your daily life?
5. Eternal Impact: How can you ensure that your life has an eternal impact, beyond just the temporal achievements and successes?

Diving Deeper:
Judges 2:6-12

1. How did Joshua's leadership impact the Israelites, and what challenges arose after his death?
2. The passage highlights the faithfulness of the generation that knew Joshua and contrasts it with the following generation. How do you perceive the role of generational influences in maintaining or losing faith and values?

3. In what ways do you ensure that your faith and values are passed on to future generations?
    a. What measures can be taken to prevent spiritual decline in your community?

Psalm 71:5-9, 17-18

4. How have you experienced God's presence and guidance at different stages of your life?
5. Are there specific instances where you felt your faith was particularly tested or strengthened?
6. How important is it for you to remember and recount the ways God has worked in your life?
    a. How does this practice affect your faith and outlook on future challenges?
7. How does your faith influence your perspective on aging and the latter stages of life?
    a. How can you maintain a vibrant and active faith as you grow older?

Acts 13:36

8. How do you discern and fulfill your purpose in your own generation?
    a. What steps do you take to ensure your life aligns with your faith and calling?
9. How does David's example of serving God's purpose inspire you in your own life?
    a. In what ways can you emulate his faithfulness and commitment?
10. David faced many challenges throughout his life. How can overcoming challenges be part of fulfilling your God-given purpose?
11. David "fell asleep" and was buried with his ancestors. How does acknowledging the transient nature of life influence your priorities and decisions?
12. What unique opportunities and challenges do you see in serving God's purpose in your generation?
    a. How can you effectively address them?
