Starter Questions:

1. Which Bible verse has been speaking to you recently—and why?
2. What's one small act of kindness you've experienced or offered this week?
3. Is there a parable of Jesus that feels especially relevant to your life right now?
4. If you could ask God any question today, what would you ask?

Discussion Questions:

1. Why do you think God chose to speak a prophetic word to Edom instead of Israel in Obadiah's time?
2. Can you recall a moment when pride subtly worked its way into your heart or decisions?
3. What does it mean to be your "brother's keeper" in today's Church community?
4. How does humility help you hear God's voice more clearly?
5. Where in your life are you tempted to rely on your own strength rather than God's sovereignty?
6. What examples of pride or superiority do we see in Edom—and how do they resonate with challenges we face today?
7. How is God's justice revealed in Obadiah, and what does it tell us about His character?
8. What message of hope does Obadiah offer for those who feel wronged or oppressed?

Diving Deeper:

1. What significance do you see in God delivering such a powerful message through the Bible's shortest book?
2. How does the historical tension between Edom and Israel shape your understanding of justice and reconciliation?
3. What does being "covered in shame" reveal about the weight of God's judgment and our need for grace?
4. Has God ever humbled you in a way that brought growth—what did that look like?
5. How can the Church respond with compassion and wisdom when injustice occurs today?
6. What kind of heart posture helps us live under God's full sovereignty?
7. What does it mean to truly "listen and obey" when God speaks through Scripture?
8. How can we move beyond isolated verses to embrace the full context of the Bible in daily life?
9. What personal rhythms can help keep your heart receptive to God's correction and transformation?
10. Do you see echoes of Obadiah's message in today's world—and how might God's justice touch modern conflicts or broken relationships?
